Sanctity of Life
Genesis 1:26-27

The sanctity of human life is so foundational to the Christian faith, that is recorded in the very first chapter of the Bible. God makes a clear distinction between humanity and all other creation. Humanity is different because we bear God's image. God breathed His breath of life into us. We are endowed with the ability to know God. Believers must stand for the sanctity of life from conception to natural death.
